

Purpose of the Forum

A forum is a place for online discussion where people can hold conversations in the form of posted messages. It's for the benefit of the District 35 Toastmasters community, it is community driven and community supported – a place where ideas can flourish, take root, and spread.

The forum is hierarchical or tree-like in structure with different topics. Within the forum's topic, each new discussion started is called a “thread,” and can be replied to by as many people as so wish.

Forum Rules

1. Posts should be related to the topics of Toastmasters, communications, leadership, and public speaking.
2. Treat other members with the respect they deserve. This should go without saying, but treat others like you would like to be treated.
3. Please do not spam. The definition of spam is an irrelevant or advertising post. Any post considered spam will be removed.
4. Please do not post threads text in all CAPITALS since this is considered to be shouting and is not necessary.
5. Please refrain from posting images larger than 800x600. This is considerate to members with slow internet speeds, and keeps the forum looking tidy.
6. Insulting and flaming or personal attacks against any Toastmaster member or club will be not tolerated.
7. Please be considerate in language you use on the forum. Think “G Rated” like in the movies.
8. Please do not post inappropriate material, consider if you would not feel comfortable viewing it at work, or in front of children or parents, don't post it!

I think these rules are clear, and easy to follow. These are only in place to ensure our community is a fun place to be, and a comfortable atmosphere for all.
